KENTUCKY OPENS GRANDLY

BIG ATTENDANCE AT LEXINGTON IN SPITE OF THREATENING WEATHER.

Season in Blue Grass State Is Inaugurated in Man ner That Leads to Conclusion It Will Be a Record Breaker-Mad Runners Are Favored.

Lexington, Ky., April 22.—Although the weather conditions were unpropitious, a splendid crowd visited the Kentucky Association course this afternoon for the opening of the twelve-day meeting that marks the inauguration of the 1915 spring season of racing in Kentucky. Just before the race there was a slight shower and it began sprinkling again just after the last race, while throughout the afternoon it was cloudy and threatening, but it was not cold or disagreeable. The track was heavy, though drying out, and if there should be no more rain, it will be in fair shape by racing time tomorrow.

no more rain, it will be in fair shape by racing time tomorrow.

President Catesby Woodford, of the Kentucky Association, president Charles F. Grainger of the New Louisville Jockey Club, President Harvey Meyers of the Latonia Jockey Club, President Harvey Meyers of the Latonia Jockey Club, Chairman Johnson N. Camden of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, General Manager John Hachmeister of the Douglas Park and Latonia Jockey Clubs, General Manager Matt J. Winn of the New Louisville Jockey Club and the Juarez, Empire City and Laurel tracks, Messrs. Charles F. Price, E. C. Hoper and John T. Ireland, who are to be stewards at Louisville and Latonia, Thomas Hart Talbot, the steward representing the state racing commission, Presiding Judge G. D. Wilson, Racing Secretary W. H. Shelley and numerous others who have long been identified with the turf in this state, all said it was an augury of probably the greatest period of racing Kentucky has ever known.

said at was an augury of probably the greatest period of racing Kentucky has ever known.

The racing, notwithstanding the condition of the track, was highly interessing. Withdrawals were numerous and betting calculations generally were somewhat upset. The only successful first choices were Hawthorn, which won the opening scramble by a narrow margin over the English colt Royal H. and Waterblossom, which easily won the race for three-year-old fillies, a sort of preliminary to the Ashiand Oaks, by three leagths, with Anna Kruter, an outsider, getting second place. Sea Sheft, the second choice, retired as if short when the stretch was renched. On today's form it would seem that Waterblossom will be the favorite for the Oaks.

Chalmers was a big disappointement in the Phoenix Holtel Handicap, the day's feature. Nearly everyone regarded him as haying the race at his mercy, but he failed when the lighter weighted Goldcrest Boy overhauled him in the stretch.

The longest-priced winner of the day was Gipsey George, owned in Ohio by Mose Moore, a dusky Daytonian, and on this one, at $20.25 to $1. Willie Meelan, of Lexington, under contract to J. W. May, won his first race at a recognized meeting.

J. W. May, won his lest race at a recognized meeting.

Dick Williams sadled a likely filly in J. L. Holland's Important, winner of the fifth race. Bonanza won the closing race easily after suffering much interference at the start.

J. O. Talbott, who will manage the Denver meeting which begins in June, was among the visitors, and stated that he had leased eighteen mutuel machines that were used in Latonia. They will be shipped shortly to the western track.

Al. Burlen, who is looking after entries for the Saratoga stakes, which close April 26, was busy distributing the entry blanks and receiving nominations to the fixtures from the horsemen here. Judging from the numerons stake entries received there will be a wholesale invasion of western owners at Saratoga this summer.

E. R. Bradley's big band of youngsters are all on the ailing list with bucked shins.

Herman Brandt, who has twenty-one of the Jeferson Livingston-racers under his charge, reports all the horses in pink of condition, including the good sprinter from Mask. The latter is coming to hand in fine shape and Brandt expects him to show his old-time good form. Ed Howard is still a sufferer from the injury he sustained at Lexington last spring when he had his stille and whirlhone hurt by being bumped and he may not go to the post for some time. Mr. Livingston is expected horses in action.

Hawthorn and Waterblossom, comprising the two-horse combination, yielded $6.45 for $2. Golderest Boy. Important and Bonanza, the three-herse, paid $228 for $2. Emil Herz, who was among the visitors, stated that his horses Short Grass, Hanworth, Devil Fish, Glencaira, Rumnymede and North Light, in charge of trainer Jack McCormick, are training in splendid shape at Churchill Downs.

Amouncement was made this afternoon that all of the Elmendorf Stud thoroughbreds, the property of the James B. Haggin's estate, are to be sold at auction this year, under the auspices of the Powers—Hunter company. The yearings, thirty-three in number, will be disposed of at Sheepshead Bay Monday, June 28. Ballot. Sain, Tradition, Hamburg Belle and other famous racers, which are now sires or matrons, will go under the hammer in the autumn either here at Lexington or at Sheepshead Bay, the place to be selected later. The foals of this year will be disposed of at the same time their dams are sold.

At yesterday's session of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, letters concerning several of the same time their dams are sold.

At yesterday's session of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, letters concerning several of those who made applications for licenses to train were received by the commission, but no refusals for associations in other states. If, for instance, an offense was committed by some one racing at New Orleans the authorities at that track should have taken action on the offense. It was the sense of the commission, as interpreted from its action, that when no recorded objection appears against an applicant, who is not under suspension any where, the license should be granted until some act of the individual in Kentucky warrants its revocation. For the benefit of those who were somewhat in the haze, it may be said that they may expect to get the gate unless they walk in the straight and narrow path.

The commission passed the rule requiring a maiden race to be given each dav, but the amount of the purse was, not specified. The proposed rule permitting any one to claim a horse out of a selling race was laid on the table. The commission ruled that all minors shall be barred from the betting rings on Kentucky tracks, and five apprentice riders were refused licenses because they are under sixteen years of age. A rule pro-

Havana racing proved to be truly a "soft thing" for the old selling plater, Wander. There he found mud so deep and so well suited to his action that he was almost an invincible while it remained in the condition most favorable to him. One result quite unimaginable in advance in connection with him is that he wan for himself for the time being the proud emineace of being the leading money-winning horse of 1915. The same conditions also favored another oldster, Tiger Jim, to such an extent that he comes second in the last to Wander. Both won many times what they would bring at auction. However, they were helped by unexpected circumstances and the list of thirty chief winners has much better horses lower down in such as Pan Zareta, Ten Point, For Fair, Rash, Julia L. and others capable of losing such as Wander and Tiger Jim, to say nothing of the third horse, Viley. The list of thirty best winners is now:

The commission had before it two contracts on Jockey Max Garner, one signed by his father to Milliam M. Cain, and the other signed by his mother to J. L. Holland. The commission decided that before Garner is granted a license the parties concerned must agree upon a single contract. The commission will not undertake to say for whom Garner shall ride.  The commissioners approved the rules as amended at the meeting of March 20 and the following new rules were adolted:  "If the walkover, except after a dead heat, is the result of arrangements by owners of horses engaged, no portion of the added money, or any other prize, need be given. ## SPEEDING UP AT WOODBINE.

THE TWO THOUSAND GUINEAS AT HAND.

Last year sixteen started in the Two Thousand, Kennymore winning with Coreyra second and Black Jester third. From the dark division there may be enough added to the foregoing list to form a field as strong numerically this year. Louis Winans might start Vanitie. H. B. Duryea has three colts of his own breeding engaged, but they are probably still in France. Mr. Belmont's Danger Rock and Mr. Whitney's Purdey are maidens, but both are good colts with outsiders' chances. Friah Marcus won a maiden two-year-old plate at Newmarket in his first race, then in succession won The Great Surrey Foal Stakes, at Epsom, Prince of Wales Stakes at Goodwood, Rous Memorial Stakes at Newmarket and wound up by taking the Middle Park Plate. He is, from all accounts, a grand colt and there will be great disappointment in England if he fails to win next Wednesday's great race.

RULING IS ENDORSED IN CANADA.

Toronto, Ont., April 22.—At the meeting of the Jackey Club of New York was endorsed and entries will not be accepted from G. C. or W. H. Baker and all privileges will be denied to bookmaker Al Koenigsberg. This action is an echo of the winter meeting at New Orleans. It was decided to recommend to all clubs racing under Canadian Racing Associations' rules that provision should be made in the conditions of all Canadian-bred races that five per cent of the first money shall go to the breeder of the winner.

Secretary Fraser has been advised from Ottawa that the report of a possibility of Americanowned horses in Canada being commandeered for military purposes was baseless. There is no commandeering of domestic horses, let along the property of neutrals.

J. E. Seagram has bought at New York the two-year-old Philistine, by Samson—Flower. The colt will be taken charge of by Al Weston in Maryland until the movement to Toronto. The stable of the president of the Ontario Jockey Club is said to be strong in home-breds this season and much is expected of the first crop of the imported stallion Galatine, by Gallinule, whose two-year-olds are the best looking ever seen at their owner's farm.

THE VIZIER WINS THE ESHER CUP.

London, Eng., April 22.—At Sandown Park today the Esher Cup of 800 sovereigns for three-year-olds at a mile and sixty yards, was won by Lord Carnarvon's bay colt The Vizier, by Valens—Cambrae, with J. B. Joel's bay colt Jove, by Your Majesty—Angelic, second and Lord Durhams, chestnut gelding Lux, by St. Victrix—Acetylene, third.

Preparation of Eligibles for Great Churchill Downs Race Followed with Keen Interest.

Louisville, Ky., April 22.—As the time approaches for the Kentucky Derby, every move made by the various candidates for it in training, both at the local tracks and elsewhere throughout the country, is keenly noted by the lovers of racing, more so than ever before because of the extraordinarily high class of the three-year-olds that will go to the post for the classic, at Churchill Downs, May S. All the eligibles to the big stake that are in training here are fulfilling every requirement of their trainers, and so far not a single one of the number, which embrace the entries of James Butler, J. E. Madden and J. W. Schorr, has shown the least indication of going wrong. Such brilliant three-year-olds as the unbeaten Last Coin, Pebbles, Kilkenny Boy, Ed Crump and Sam McMeekin are doing all their trainers ask of them and are daily seen on the track in active preparation for the big race.

The arrival of H. P. Whitney's great stable is least indication of going wrong. Such beilliant three-year-olds as the unbeaten Last Coin, Pebbles, Kilkenny Boy, Ed Crump and Sam McMeckin are doing all their trainers ask of them and are daily seen on the track in active preparation for the big race.

The arrival of H. P. Whitney's great stable is expected at any time at the Downs, including three Kentucky Derby eligibles in the unbeaten filly Regect, Prince Henry and Spun Glass. It is now believed that Regret will surely start in the Derby and it is also considered likely that Prince Henry may go to the post with his great stable mate. The latter is a half brother to the mighty Salvidere, and his dam, Salile of Navarre, cost Mr. Whitney $10,000 for the stud, at public sale.

Another candidate which has many admirers in the Derby, and which is expected soon at the Downs is Capt. E. B. Cassatt's noted gelding, Garbage, which won nearly $9,000 in stakes and purses last season. He is in the hands of a skillful trainer and while little has been heard of his recent work, it is regarded as a certainty that he will be fit to go to the post for the big race. For the first time in a number of years George J. Long has no Derby candidate in training. He has an entry this season in Freeman, a half brother to the great Free Lance, by a Kentucky Derby winner, Sir Huon, but trainer Pete Coyne is making no effort to fit him for this engagement. Freeman was injured slightly as a yearling in a collision with Horron while working on the track. It has taken him all this time to get over that shaking up, though he was started twice as a two-year-old. That accident may prevent him from ever being a really great horse, but he is likely to win some races this season. As a yearling, before his accident, he was regarded as one of the best young sters ever raised at Bashford Manor farm. Trainer Coyne will not take Ralph up until next fail, on the advice of Dr. Sheppard. That veterinarian advised that Ralph remain out of training at least one full year and in this way he has hopes that pulling up in 1:19%, and continues to train as well as any horse here. He will be ready earlier than most people predicted several weeks ago. In fact he is right now not far away from a race. With such horses as old Rosehud, Ralph, Free Lance and Great Britain out of training this spring, Hodge looms up as a likely contestant for honors in the four-year-old division. The noted filly, Bronzewing is also going along in her work this season like a real turf queen. So far she has shown no sign of any soreness in training and moreover this spring she seems to possess a great turn of speed. She will be hard to beat in any race over a mile whenever her trainer, Dan Lehan, pronounces her ready to race. Of course both Hodge and Bronzewing have Luke McLuke in their way, provided he stands hard training, but, like so many other stars of the older division, he is on the suspicious list. This mighty four-year-old has never been a real perfectly sound horse since he was a yearling and his present trouble may not be serious enough to keep him from the post this spring in his important engagements.. Trainer Schorr is endeavoring to get Luke McLuke ready for the Clark Handicap. His father has never won that stake, though he has made several bids for the event. His last attempt was with Froglegs, which was beaten in the race, run in the mud, in Buckthorn.

Horsemen at the Downs are much impressed with the English bred two-year-olds in Jefferson Livingston's stable and especially with the bay colt by the unbeaten Colin, out of Ormula, a daughter of the great Orme. This youngster has been named Colonel Winn, out of compliment to the manager of the Churchill Døwns course, as well as other race tracks. He is a good looking youngster, of high racing type, and possesses an abundance of size as well as substance. He has a neat, bony head and a neck well set into good shoulders, showing a deepness through the heart. His back indicates he will be a weight carrier and the cut of his bind legs indicates he will be alve to the deep of the p

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

The railways from Germany into Belgium are crowded with troop trains filled with young, vigorous, and finely equipped Germans and Austrians, who are literally being poured toward the western front. All passenger traffic has been stopped, and to shield as much as possible the nature of the army's activities, the German general staff has withdrawn the guards from the Dutch border and replaced them with a heavy screen of cavalry. "We are certainly," telegraphs one correspondent, "on the eve of a great battle in Flanders—probably upon the eve of an unequaled campaign." The ailies have prepared to meet the crisis. The British force in France, which, at the beginning of the war, consisted of six divisions, has been increased to more than thirty-six divisions, or, roughly speaking, 750,000 men, according to a statement made by David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, in the blace of every man who had fallen in battle had been filled and that the army was adequately equipped. But he reiterated the need for a greater supply of munitions, declaring that during the battle of Neuve Chapelle more ammunition was used than in the whole of the South African war, which lasted nearly three years.

Polite but unmistakable exception to the German government's criticisms of the foreign policies of the United States is given in the reply which the administration made to the memorandum submitted by Count von Bernstoff, the German ambassador. The reply is a comprehensive denial of the allegations and rejection of the suggestions put forth by the Berlin government in the Von Bernstoff memorandum. It flatly denies that the United States has yielded any of its rights or otherwise acquiesced in British interference with legitimate American trade with Germany. It contends that it would be an unneutral act to prohibit exportation of arms for the reason that such an embargo would be a discrimination in favor of the Germans who gannot obtain American supplies, and against the allies, whose control of the seas enables them to trade with the United States.

Hill No. 60, dominating an area southeast of Ypres, continues to be the storm center of the western front, with the British clinging tenaciously to the ground taken by assault last Saturday. Counter attack after counter attack has been so far repulsed, but the British hold is still disputed by the Germans and the end of the lively and costly lighting is not yet in sight. The British losses have not been announced, but they are estimated at well over the 2,000 figure. The Germans are believed to have lost more than 4,000 men. Secretary Bryan stated that he regarded as a closed incident the matter of the protest made by the British government to the United States against the cleaning of the bottom of the hull of the German auxilliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich at Newport News. The same course that was adopted with respect to the Prinz Eitel Friedrich has been with respect to the Prinz Eitel Friedrich has beer followed in the case of the German auxiliary cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm. No protest has been made by the British government against this latter inci-dent dent.

A report reached Roine from Petrograd yesterday that Italy had sent a note to Austria which virtually amounted to an ultimatum. The note is said to embody the minimum terms upon which Italy will consent to conclude an agreement with Austria. General opinion in Rome is that an agreement may still be reached. Nevertheless, military preparations are being continued with the greatest energy along the frontier, where Austria is concentrating troops.

Dispatches from Vera Cruz to the Carranza agency at Washington said General Obregon had reached a point twelve miles north of Irapnata and was pursuing Villa with an army of 40,009, including General Mergui's command. General Dieguez, the dispatch said, had taken Guadalajara and would act as Obregon's rear guard. Villa losses at Celaya were estimated at 6,000 killed and 5,000 missing.

killed and 5,000 missing.

British submarines which had entered Heligoland bight were attacked on April 17 by German ships, one and probably others of the under-water craft being sunk, the German admiralty announced. It was probably the intention of the submarines to attack the German fleet at Heligoland. This is the first reported activity of British submarines in this locality. It is not yet known how they escaped the German mine fields.

The Bussian advance in the Cornathians has now

caped the German mine fields.

The Russian advance in the Carpathians has now apparently come to a full stop, for reports from that region speak only of attempted attacks, which were repulsed, both in the mountains and in the direction of Stry. The Austro-Germans have made an outflanking effort to support this latter movement. It is stated from neutral sources that the Austrians have virtually evacuated Bukowina.

The trawler Fuschia arrived at Aberdeen, Scotland, with the crew of the trawler Envoy and reported that the Envoy had been shelled by a German submarine Wednesday night off the east coast. The men on the Envoy left their ship in a small boat, which, they say, also was shelled by the submarine. No one was injured.

WILL BUILD NEW TRACK AT SYRACUSE.

Albany, N. Y., April 22,—Members of the State Fair Commission held a conference with Lieutenant Governor Schoeneck, who is an ex-officio member of the commission. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss a possible appropriation of $70,000 to be used for the construction of a new race track on the Fair Grounds at Syracuse. Lieutenant Governor Schoeneck, who has charge of the racing features of the fair and who is an enthusiastic horseman, said that he had the assurance that they would be successful in securing the amount of money desired for this purpose. The present location of the track, he said, was not desirable and greatly interfered with the construction of some of the large buildings.

While the present track is in good shape the commissioners have decided to change its location and make other improvements that will establish it as one of the foremost race tracks in the country. It is planned to begin this work next fall, soon after the Grand Circuit meeting in September. The new track will be completed for the race meeting in connection with the fair of 1916.

G. N. and F. M., Cincinnati, O. A layer should always ask a backer to name the race and then such controversies would not arise. From the circumstances of the case it seems probable the fourth race was the one meant, Bambi having been selected for the first. At the same time one could back two or more in the same event and it is well settled that when no race is named a wager on an entry attaches to the first in which the owner has an entry.
